

Mount Olivet Foundation – Equity Scholarship

The Mount Olivet Foundation is offering an Equity Scholarship (up to $5,000) toward the cost of post-secondary school education, for a Black or Latinx high school senior entering college in Fall of 2023, from the following high schools:

- All High School Students in Arlington County, Virginia
 - Alexandria City High School (Alexandria, Virginia)
 - Justice High School (Fairfax County, Virginia)
 - Meridian High School (Falls Church City, Virginia)

Application Deadline – March 15, 2024

Eligibility. To be eligible, candidates should be of Black or Latinx descent, have been accepted at an accredited two- or four-year college, university or equivalent institution, demonstrate financial need, have an annual family income below the median for Arlington County, and have a GPA of at least 2.5. In addition, preference will be given to applicants who are the first in their families to attend a post-secondary school.

Scholarship. A scholarship of up to $5,000 towards tuition and academic expenses will be awarded. The scholarship is renewable if the recipient maintains a GPA of at least 2.5, is making substantial progress towards an undergraduate degree, and funds are available.

Application. The form can be completed online at <https://www.mountolivetfoundation.org/copy-of-loans-grants> or using the form on the following pages, providing additional pages as necessary. Email completed application to: mofoundation.contact@gmail.com by March 15, 2024. If you are unable to email the application, please contact us.

Selection. Applicants will be ranked according to financial need, written submissions, leadership potential, and community service. The top five candidates will be interviewed remotely by the Selection Committee in late March or early April 2024 before it makes its recommendation to the Mount Olivet Foundation Board.

Applications Due. Applications are due on or before March 15, 2024. Candidates will be advised of decisions no later than April 30, 2024.
